JUNIOR JUDGES TO CHICAGO

Four Brainer Boys Represent State at Stock Show.

The Missouri state champions in the junior stock judging contest which was held at Columbia during Junior Farmers' week, left yesterday morning for Chicago where they will compete with other states in the International Live-Stock Show, December 2 to 9. The team is composed of four boys from the high school at Brainer, and is in charge of E. M. Woods, a 1921 graduate of the College of Agriculture, who is teaching vocational agriculture at that place.

The contestants, who won the honor of representing Missouri at the International by defeating all other high schools of the state here last month, have been on the road for the last six weeks doing practice judging, according to Mr. Woods. They attended the American Royal Live-stock show at Kansas City last week and have been judging the live stock at the University Farm here for the last three days.

The boys are: Edward Ream, high-point man in the junior contest, Neal McBee, Nelson McBee and Joe Davis.

$921.77 OBTAINED SO FAR IN CITY WELFARE DRIVE

Homecoming Interrupts Canvass—Only 11 Captains Report—$5,500 Is the Goal

A special meeting of the district captains in the charity campaign of the Public Welfare Society of Columbia was called yesterday by Thomas J. Walker, captain of the campaign, to determine how much progress had been made. Because of distractions created by Homecoming, only eleven out of twenty-two captains reported. The total amount of money that had been subscribed in the districts of eleven captains was $921.77.

The reports that were received from these captains indicated that possibly the rush of Homecoming and Thanksgiving activities have been a handicap in carrying on the campaign as effectively as was desired. Another difficulty which could not be explained so readily was that some families had contributed only 50 cents and $1. Some of these families were expected to contribute at least $5 or $10. The committee feels that there must be some misunderstanding, that possibly these people have not understood that the present drive is the one that comes annually to support the charity activities of Columbia.

This drive must be a success and the committee is determined to make it a success. The goal fixed for the campaign is $5,500. All of the homes that have given but 50 cents and $1 that should have given $5 and $10 are to be canvassed. The committee, however, is not discouraged in view of the fact that the business district has barely been touched in the campaign up to this time. Only a few firms have been approached and the response has been good. The Victor Barth Clothing Co. and the Columbia Telephone Co. each subscribed $50.

A plan has been worked out by which the business district is to be covered in an intensive way on Tuesday. The object is to have every business house in Columbia double its subscription. In addition to the business district, the students of the two colleges and the University are to be canvassed and there is to be a special campaign among the negroes.

The men who were selected to canvass the business district are: Frank Rollins, Edward McDonald, John McMullen, O. B. Wilson, Edward Levy, Thomas McHarg, Dr. Virgil Blackmore, Dr. J. B. Cole and J. H. Jenkins.

The following captains made reports for their districts; in most cases they reported that work was still incomplete:

District 21, Mrs. Tom Stewart, $21.50; district 3, Mrs. Patterson Bain, $18.58; district 9, Mrs. L. B. Truitt, $13.04; district 17, Mrs. G. W. Voller, $21.10; district 12, Mrs. J. H. Pringle, $71; district 4, Mrs. Millard Lipscomb, $53.20; district 6, Mrs. H. W. Hubbard, $125; district 2, Mrs. Lloyd Jones, $133.50; district 14, Mrs. Clay Schwabe, $20; district 25, Miss Mary Jesse, $174.50; and district 20, Mrs. James Patterson McBaine, $260.35.
